

Late Sergeant Seeley.

With reference to Sergeant Wm. Seeley, the brother of Mrs. Wilson Irwin and Mrs. W. Greenwood, of Gordonvale, who died in East Africa whilst on active service, and whose portrait will shortly appear in the "Herald," our Gordonvale correspondent forwards the following particulars: "Sergeant William Seeley, 10th South African Infantry, died in East Africa whilst on active service, from blackwater fever. Sergeant Seeley also served in the Boer War and is a brother of Mrs. Wilson Irwin and Mrs. W. Greenwood, of Gordonvale."
