Dear John,

Got yours of 5th inst. O.K. with enclosed picture & was glad of the news and to know that life in the distressful island is still quite bearable altho' I guess it sometimes seems to be not altogether a normal little bit of heaven. Had a letter also from Dungannon with all good news and a cutting telling about the challenge cup won by Wfd. Please convey my hearty congratulations & hopes for still more improvements. We can have a contest at stringin' words when I get back and the shadow of the censor no longer blurs the page while I write. Glad to know the golf goes well & to hear of your success against bogey. Always thought B. a hard opponent: he is so consistent, it always seems an uphill fight. Had a bone in my left hand broken which gave me my first experience of hospital life & partly accounts for long delay in writing. Quite well again and back at work. Not likely to get leave for a bit yet as the man who drew 34 is on leave now and my number is 117. Under the cires. I thought it well to get our paymaster to send you 25 from me to pay Belle for the copy of Science & Health and any other little debts I left behind. You might send me a pound note to pay Corporal Gentles of our platoon for a Diabole he brought back from London and several other things he got for me and forwarded to you. We are getting quite a bit of sport these days and as my job is not always bomb proof I thought it best to scribble out a short form of will in my pay book on the 3rd inst, and here it is again of today's date in case my pay book gets lost:

Will

I leave everything I possess to my eldest brother John B. Scott. Headmaster, Model Schools, Ballymena, Co. Antrim, Ireland.
(Signed) R.H. Scott
June 5th 1916.

Either one of these or both will serve my purpose and there should be enough to pay you the 15 I borrowed and other items too numerous to mention. My name is still in the books of Smith & Thompson for about 13.10. so I suppose they should get it. Of course if mother needs any money I know she can always get it from you and there should be enough left to help out that way. I just thought it no harm to say all this in case I might go west before my turn for leave and some of the boys do occasionally get knocked out. My rest in the hospital has done me a lot of good so I now feel better than ever and don't intend to snuff it till I have to.

Had a nice long letter and useful big parcel from L. last week and everything goes well enough in Scotland. Would be glad of another flash lamp. Last one finished a day or two ago & was very useful on many awkward occasions. The battery and the lamp just suited each other & the case and all those grew old and faded together. Must leave something to say for next time & anyhow this is quite enough to go on with. Please give my best thanks & kind regards to Bella Fuff & W. Hope to join in a foursome before the winter comes & promise to make it interesting for W. Well. Best Wishes for happiness & all kinds of good luck to the lot of yer

Yours affectionately

Bob.
