

ANTRIM MEMORIAL, PLAQUES AND MOMUMENT'S REGISTER 2014

NAME	LOCATION	DESCRIPTION	WHO / WHAT THE MEMORIAL IS FOR
Market Square War Momument	Market Square, High Street, Antrim, Co. Antrim	Tri-Service War Memorial	In memory of those who served with the Tri-force during the war.
Market Square War Memorial Two	Market Square, High Street, Antrim, Co. Antrim	Royal Engineer's War Memorial	In memory of Sappers Patrick Azimkar and Mark Quinsey who died as a result of a terrorist attack at Masserene Barracks on the 7th March 2009.
Alexander Irvine Park Memorial	Castleway Street, Antrim, Co. Antrim	Security Forces War Memorial	In remembrance of those members of the security forces from the borough of Antrim who have bravely given their lives in defence of our country.
Crumlin Gateway Memorial	2A Mainstreet, Crumlin, Co. Antrim	World War One Gateway Memorial	For those who perished in service to the country during 1914 to 1919.
Randalstown Memorial Gardens	Shanes Street, Randalstown, Co. Antrim (OC Church)	World Wars and General Services Memorial Gardens	In remembrance of those men and women from Randalstown and district who served and gave their lives in the two world wars and in all other conflicts.
Randalstown Memorial Gardens (Seat Plaque One)	Shanes Street, Randalstown, Co. Antrim (OC Church)	World Wars and General Services Memorial Gardens	In memory of Chief Petty Officer David Logan, Royal Navy (Randalstown Royal British Legion) always remember by Lila Logan and Family.
Randalstown Memorial Gardens (Seat Plaque Two)	Shanes Street, Randalstown, Co. Antrim (OC Church)	World Wars and General Services Memorial Gardens	In memory of 2539, C.S.M. , James Surgenor 11th Battalion Royal Irish Rifles Residence, Grange Toomebridge died as a result of gas aged 26yrs France, 3rd September 1916. Ever remembered by his Nieces and Newphews.
Randalstown Memorial Gardens (Seat Plaque Three)	Shanes Street, Randalstown, Co. Antrim (OC Church)	World Wars and General Services Memorial Gardens	In memory of ordinary seaman Albert French, H.M.S. Diamond lost at sea on 27th April 1941. Twin Brother Herbert, French, Royal Navy who survived the war and died on 1st October 1996. Always remembered by Mary French and family.
Randalstown Memorial Gardens (Seat Plaque Four)	Shanes Street, Randalstown, Co. Antrim (OC Church)	World Wars and General Services Memorial Gardens	Engraving Worn - Remembrance of a member in the Security Forces.
Randalstown Memorial Gardens (Wall Mounted Plaque One)	Shanes Street, Randalstown, Co. Antrim (OC Church)	World Wars and General Services Memorial Gardens	For those who perished and served in the RAF, Royal Engineers and Infranty Batilions.
Randalstown Memorial Gardens (Wall Mounted Plaque Two)	Shanes Street, Randalstown, Co. Antrim (OC Church)	World Wars and General Services Memorial Gardens	For those who perished and served in the Royal Irish Fusiliers, Airbone/Paratrooper squadron, Royal Artillery Regiment and Royal Ulster Rifles.
Randalstown Memorial Gardens (Wall Mounted Plaque Three)	Shanes Street, Randalstown, Co. Antrim (OC Church)	World Wars and General Services Memorial Gardens	For those who perished and served in the Irish Guards, Royal Navy, Royal Irish Guards and Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers.